Q6. Is there any interest charged on the scholarship amount?

This is an interest-free loan scholarship.

Q7. What is the loan scholarship amount?

The maximum amount for the scholarship will be Rs.5 lakhs per scholar, except for the 3 K.C. Mahindra fellow scholarships for which the maximum amount will be Rs.10 lakhs per scholar.

Q8. Do you ask for any collateral security?

We do not insist on any collateral but applicants must have a guarantor. This is mandatory. The guarantor's liability is on par with the candidate.

Q9. Who can be a guarantor and what is the guarantor's responsibility?

The guarantor should normally be a parent(s)/guardian of the candidate. In the case of a married person, the guarantor can be a spouse or the parents-in-law. In case parent/s/spouse are unable to be a guarantor, a guardian or any relative (i.e. any member of the family such as brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, uncle, and aunt (both maternal and paternal) or any other relative may be the guarantor). A non-relative may act as a guarantor, subject to the Director's approval and submitting relevant documents.

Q10. Do you have any format for the Statement of Purpose (SoP)?

No, we do not have any specific format, but we do expect a good SoP. The SoP should highlight your purpose of applying to a particular course in a particular university. Through the SoP we want to understand your life and motivation for your chosen career path and goals. This essay should consist a gist of what you have done, what you are doing right now, and what you intend to do in the future.

Q11. Do you need a letter of recommendation (LoR) and is there any specific format?

Yes, we need at least one LoR, which can be written by a professor of the college or university where the candidate is studying OR the Employer, in case the candidate is / was working. The LoR should be addressed to K.C. Mahindra Education Trust.

Q12. When should I update my final choice of university for the course I intend to pursue?

You can update your final choice of university as soon as you decide to join the university of your choice. This step is mandatory to complete your application form.

Q13. When are the interviews held?

The interviews are held in July.

Q14. Are the candidates reimbursed for their travel and accommodation for the scholarship interviews?

The candidates coming from outside of Mumbai are reimbursed only for their travel and not for accommodation.
